

Stavanger Region
European Office

Program

Smart growth in the Stavanger region

Restructuring & diversifying the economy through innovation

Stavanger, Tuesday 8. May

Visit from the EEA Joint Parliamentary Committee

11.30 Pick up from Hotel

Transportation by electrical buss from H2020 project Triangulum from hotel to location of meetings

New Energy solutions

12.00-14.00 Lunch at Statoil business centre

Inspired by Nordic traditions and local produce

Statoil in the energy transition

Irene Rummelhoff, Executive Vice President, New Energy Solutions

Statoil is committed to transforming the oil and gas industry and providing energy for a low carbon future.

The company is already innovators in offshore wind and a world leader in carbon capture and storage.

Contact person: Anne Cavendish

14.00 Departure Statoil HQ to Stavanger municipality

Stavanger a lighthouse city in a smart region

14.15-15.15 VIP lounge, Stavanger concert hall, Sandvigå 1

Growing a Smart City in the Energy capital of Norway

Christine Sagen Helgø, Mayor of Stavanger

H2020 and the Lighthouse project as a catalyst for smart growth

Heidi Kristina Jakobsen, Director Stavangerregion European Office

Smarter together!

Gunnar Crawford, Head of Smart City Stavanger

Moderator: Tone Grindland, Head of Economic development

Smart City Safari

15.15 – 15.45 Smart City safari on bus on the way to Lyse.

Demonstrating innovation solutions within mobility, energy and ICT

15.45 – 17.00 Lyse Headquarter, Breiflåtveien 18

Lyse and the TH2020 project Triangulum

Per Erling Fjeld, Senior adviser, Lyse

The future energy market seen from a Lighthouse city

Dagfinn Wåge, Head of Innovation

Micro grid demonstration

Utilizing solar power for battery storage and smart EV charging

Trond Thorbjørnsen, Business developer innovation

Contact person: Per Erling Fjeld, Senior adviser, Lyse

17.00 Departure Lyse HQ to hotel

19.30 Dinner at Norwegian oil museum